If any item is missing your application process will be delayed or declined.

All vendors must operate in a courteous and legitimate manner and keep their area clean, as well as all areas around your spots. All vendors' operations must be in accordance with all federal, state, and local statutes, regulations, and requirements. It is recommended that the vendor/exhibitor protect themselves fully with regard to any property loss, theft, or damage as a result of participating in this event. The Kuna Chamber of Commerce and the City of Kuna, its officers, agents, employees, and other representatives shall not be held liable for, and they are hereby released from any liability for any damage, loss, harm, or injury to the person or property of the vendor/exhibitor or any of its officers, agents, employees, or other representatives, resulting from theft, fire, water, weather, accident or other cause. The vendor shall indemnify, defend and protect the Kuna Chamber of Commerce and the City of Kuna from any and all claims, demands, suits, liability, damages, loss costs, attorney's fees and expenses of whatever kind of nature, which might result from or arise out of any action or failure to act on the part of the vendor/exhibitor or any of its officers, agents, employees, or other representatives.

Deadline for Food Vendor Applications is Friday, April 10, 2020.

This is only an application. Completing does not guarantee acceptance.

I have read and agree to all the rules and regulations outlined above and in the attached rules and regulation form for Kuna Days 2020 and request a food booth space be made available for me.
